

QUALITY POLICY

- To offer to its customers proper and satisfactory logistics solutions to its needs on International and/or National transportation of goods, following all deadlines and demands in order to find the best ways to these solutions.
- To offer, even through a third party company, services that support or complement customers' needs on their logistics processes with the same determination and attention on G4 Cargo's own procedures, keeping the control with the third party companies.
- To execute all requirements of Quality Management system and statutory, in a way to accomplish the implementation and manutention within the proper needs for the company to keep its system working perfectly, attending to all involved parties expectations.
- To continuously improve and aggregate the company's procedures face to the needs and rules of Quality Management System.

